

Awada Foundation Organizes Medical Camp in Dudha Village

general villagers with access to check-ups, expert doctors' easy consultations close to their examinations, homes. For the past two ECG, blood years, the Awada pressure and Foundation has been doing sugar tests, remarkable work in the and free fields of education, health, medicines and sports in this region. were The foundation has not only

With the noble spirit of "Sarve Santu Niramaya" distributed to 179 patients, adopted local schools and (May all be healthy), the 37 patients were identified improved their Awada Foundation and referred for treatment infrastructure, but its successfully organized a of cataracts and other teachers are also providing large-scale health camp in serious illnesses, which their services there to Dudha village, Butibori, will be provided at ensure quality education. Nagpur. Organized in subsidized rates or free of The foundation collaboration with charge. Ritu Patwari, successfully operates free Shalinitai Meghe Hospital Director of the Awada computer training centers, and Research Center, the Foundation, stated that the tailoring centers, and main objective of this camp foundation considers health tuition centers in the area. was to provide free and to be the foundation of a Through these centers, quality medical facilities to meaningful life and that numerous welfare rural areas. A total of 328 such efforts for rural programs are being patients from Dudha, Tarsi, empowerment will conducted to empower rural and Dhavalapeth villages continue in the future. This youth and women and make received health check-ups camp provided local themselves-reliant. today. The camp offered